

Access Management Standard

Engineering · classification: Internal

Access Management Standard (Tech)

===== Access is granted by role, reviewed quarterly, and revoked on the day of role change. Production access requires hardware-token MFA and just-in-time elevation with an expiry. Break-glass credentials are sealed, monitored and rotated after every use. No human or service account may bypass the central audit log for any reason.