

Capex and Opex Guidelines

Finance · classification: Internal

Capex and Opex Guidelines (Finance)

===== Capital expenditure creates a lasting asset and is appraised with payback and total cost of ownership; operational expenditure is consumed within the year. Items below the capitalisation threshold are expensed regardless of useful life. Capex requests include the asset class, depreciation profile and funding source, and are approved per the delegation matrix. Leases are assessed under the lease accounting standard.