

Financial Year Closing Checklist

Finance · classification: Confidential

Financial Year Closing Checklist (Finance)

===== The close calendar fixes cut-offs for accruals, receivables, payables, payroll and inventory. Reconciliations: bank, intercompany, fixed assets and tax balances are signed off before consolidation. Journal entries above threshold carry supporting documents. The close concludes with management accounts, variance commentary and the controls certification. Missing documents block the certification for the responsible unit.