

Data Classification Standard

IT · classification: Internal

Data Classification Standard (IT)

===== Information is classified Public, Internal, Confidential or Restricted. Public data may be shared freely; Internal data stays inside the company; Confidential data is role-gated and shared on need-to-know; Restricted data additionally requires clearance L5 and is handled only in approved storage. Every document and export carries its classification label. When in doubt, classify up and ask the data owner.