

Software Licensing Rules

IT · classification: Internal

Software Licensing Rules (IT)

===== Only software from the approved catalogue may be installed.
Open-source components must be cleared through the license review checklist; copyleft-licensed code may not be linked into proprietary deliverables without written approval. License keys are corporate property, stored in the vault, and never shared between machines. Annual true-up reconciles deployed installations against purchased entitlements.