

Investor Update

Executive · classification: Restricted

Investor Update (Executive only)

===== The quarterly investor letter drafts the narrative before the earnings call: growth, margin discipline and governance investments. Forward statements follow the disclosure policy and legal review. Undisclosed material information must never reach analysts, press or internal chat. The final version is published by the investor-relations office only.