

IP Assignment Policy

Legal · classification: Internal

Intellectual Property Assignment Policy (Legal)

===== Work created by employees in the course of employment belongs to the company. Employment agreements include the assignment clause; contractors sign the IP assignment rider before the first commit. Open-source contributions on personal time use personal equipment and do not involve company confidential information. Inventions made with company resources must be disclosed to Legal within 30 days.