

Investor Communications Policy

Executive · classification: Confidential

Investor Communications Policy (Executive)

===== Market-sensitive information is disclosed only through designated spokespersons and approved channels; the disclosure calendar governs results announcements and quiet periods. Selective disclosure is prohibited - material updates go to the market at once. Investor materials are archived with approval evidence. Analyst queries route to investor relations, and leaks of market-sensitive information trigger the disclosure committee immediately.