

Compensation Confidentiality

HR · classification: Confidential

Compensation Confidentiality Policy (HR)

===== Salary information is confidential. It is shared strictly on a need-to-know basis: HR partners and the executive team. Individual salaries must never be discussed in public channels or exposed to other departments. Compensation data is processed only for payroll and legal purposes (DPDP Act 2023, purpose limitation). Any suspected leak must be reported to security within 24 hours.